Photo: The partnership between HEAL Africa and WorldShare has enabled the training of many doctors and specialists in different medical fields. Among them, are two specialists in orthopaedics surgery - Dr. John Musubao and Dr. Simplicie Vuhaka. Both studied their specialisations abroad and were sponsored by WorldShare which covered all the costs associated with their studies.

Since finishing their training and returning to work at the HEAL Africa Hospital, the two doctors have conducted 6,200 operations between them. Thank you for helping to make this possible!
